

MARSHALL COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OUTSTANDING CITIZEN

The Marshall County Chamber of Commerce will present an award to an outstanding citizen in Marshall County during the activities taking place at the Lewisburg Recreation Center on July 4, 2009. The citizens of Marshall County are asked to participate in this selection by sending nominations to the Chamber office.

The rules for nominating are as follows:

1. Nominees must be at least 25 years old.
2. Nominees must have resided in Marshall County for the past year from July 2008.
3. Only one nomination per individual is necessary for consideration.
4. Emphasis should be placed on the contributions of the individual.
5. No member of the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors is eligible for selection.

A committee consisting of five Marshall County residents will select the person to receive the award. If you have nominated someone in the past who has not already won, please submit this name again. Past recipients include the following: Dr. K. J. Phelps, Sr., Jack Adams, Velma Green, Lena Mae Pickens, Robert H. Walker, Edmond and Lucille Hafemeister, Dr. J. C. Leonard, Professor George Turner, Wallace Haley, Rev. J. A. Biggs, J. R. Moon, Betty Ann Ogilvie, B. D. and Marcella Spence, Mildred Burnett, Phil Sanders, John O. Barnes, Charles Hardison, Mary Rozell, Robert Mason, Francis Wiley, Eugene (Spook) Clark, Evelyn Harris, Madelyn Shelton, Beverly Little, Willow Mai Campbell, Beulah Wilson, Sarah Campbell, David Sanders, and Mary Farley.

All nominations must be postmarked by June 23, 2009 and should be addressed to the Marshall County Chamber of Commerce, 227 Second Avenue North, Lewisburg, Tennessee 37091.
