

"Your Chamber on the Move"

In a coordinated effort to promote business in Marshall County and assist you, the Chamber members, the Chamber is teaming up with Mike Wiles and the JECDB to host Wisty Pender of the Business Enterprise Resource Office, BERO.

BERO provides technical financial and management information assistance to small, minority and women owned businesses.

Wisty Pender will be at the Chamber of Commerce Office on Tuesday, April 7, 2009 from 12:30 until 3:45 PM. She will have five slots open for appointments if you are interested in advice for your business at no cost to you.

More information will be provided to you by e-mail as it becomes available. If you are interested in scheduling an appointment please call the chamber office at 359-3863 and remember, there are only five, thirty minute slots available on April 7th.

Also, in an effort to promote business, the chamber will be assisting with the Technology Fair which will be held at Columbia State Community College, Lewisburg Campus on Tuesday, May 21, 2009 from 10:00 A.M.

until 7:30 PM. To kick off the Fair the Chamber will host a coffee for the JECDB the morning of the Fair. If you would like to receive information about becoming a vendor or helping with the Fair, call Greg Lowe at 359-1544.

The Chamber and the JECDB will be hosting

a webinar by Jon Schallert

The topic is "Turn Any Business Into a Consumer Destination". We will be sending out more information about this event in the upcoming weeks.

Chamber of Commerce Fish Fry

Mark your calendars for Friday, April 3, 2009, from 5:00 PM until 7:30 PM for the Marshall County Chamber of Commerce Fish Fry!

The Fish Fry will be held at the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church Family Life Center on the corner of Haynes and 3rd Ave. N. in Lewisburg. Russell Catering Services will be catering the event.

Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children six and under. The child's ticket includes either a hot dog or a fish plate.

The Chamber is giving away a prize for the member that sells the most tickets! If you are interested in participating in this contest call the office at 359-3863!

Also, we are looking for "member" entertainers for the event. If you or an employee would like to perform, please call the Chamber Office. It is a great way to advertise your business. You will be responsible for equipment. Microph ones will be provided.

If you would like to be a sponsor for the event, the cost is $50. This includes your business to be included in the advertising and you may set up a booth inside the room the night of the event.

RSVP to the Chamber by Wednesday, March 18th to be a sponsor!

Tickets are on sale at the Chamber Office. Drive-up service will be available.

A limited number of tickets will be sold at the door, so buy your tickets in advance.

Chamber Businesses Help Centerstone

Lisa Kilpatrick, Office Manager for Centerstone's Lewisburg office, stands among piles of toys and gifts generously donated by some of the Marshall County Chamber of Commerce businesses and their staff, as well as one family. Kilpatrick, shown here at the Marshall County Chamber of Commerce, transported two loads of gifts for families served by Centerstone. Contributions were made by the following: CB&S Bank, A1 Exterminating, AJ Medical, Stan McNabb Ford Mercury, LLC, County Wide Tree Service, Willowbrook, Waste Management, Randstad, Register of Deeds - D.W. Weaver, Assessor of Property - Linda Haislip and staff, Bakin Cakes, Director of the JECDB - Mike Wiles, Marshall County Mayor - Joe Liggett, and Joel and Patty Musgrave. The Chamber would like to thank all who participated and bought presents for the children of the Centerstone families.

$ $ $ $ $ $ Shop Marshall County First! $ $ $ $ $ $

Check local stores and merchants first before you shop out of town. Our local stores and merchants provide reliable products, good service, and they know the customers. They also employ your friends, neighbors, and children. Plus, they pay local taxes that pave our streets and finance our schools. On top of this, they often donate their time, talents and money for many community causes. So before you spend your money out of town, please check locally first!
