

Skeet & Trap Range

Horton has a professional multi-field skeet and trap range with crazy quail and a five stand available to individuals, groups and gun clubs. The skeet range clubhouse offers rental guns, ammunition and other range supplies. A range manager is available for assistance.

Planned Programs

During the summer, programs about a variety of natural and cultural history topics are scheduled weekly. Hayrides, campfires and many other fun and informative activities take place on the weekends. Canoeing the easy-flowing Duck River is great family fun. Scheduled day floats are conducted by park staff during the summer, or visitors may bring their own or rent canoes from a nearby outfitter. Ranger-led programs are available upon request. Team building sessions on our low ropes course facilitated by park personnel are the perfect way to add value and entertainment to your group's stay

Henry Horton State Park

Set in the rolling hills of Middle Tennessee, the 1523 acre park is located on the former estate of the late Henry H. Horton, 36th governor of Tennessee. Running through the park is the historic Duck River, one of the most bio-diverse ecosystems in the entire world. Remnants of a mill and bridge operated and used by the Wilhoite family for over a century may be seen today on the Wilhoite Mill Trail. Henry Horton is known for their championship 18-hole golf course, inn and cabins, campground and trap and skeet range.

Inn and Conference Center

The Henry Horton Inn has 73 inn rooms and four suites. Rooms are air conditioned, carpeted and equipped with TV and phone. The suites have a small refrigerator, microwave, toaster and coffee maker. The inn has handicapped accessible rooms and pet-friendly rooms.

Cabins

Cabins are open year-round and are located within walking distance of the hotel. The five rustic cabins have two bedrooms with queen beds, one bath, full kitchen and living room, wood burning fireplaces (wood provided), air conditioning, TV, phones and charcoal grills outside. The three deluxe cabins have two bedrooms and bathrooms, gas fireplace, central heat and air and the amenities of the rustic cabins. There is one pet-friendly cabin. One of the deluxe cabins is handicapped accessible. Cabins have a two night minimum.

Meeting Rooms

There are four meeting rooms in the inn with 2,000 sq. feet of space to accommodate from 15-90 people. The Conference Lodge, with 3,150 sq. feet of meeting space is located in a separate building near the inn and is used for large meetings up to 300 people.

Camping

There are 76 campsites situated near the scenic Duck River. There are 10 tent sites, and nine primitive campsites, and three back country campsites. The remaining 54 sites have water and electric hookups with wireless internet available. Fire rings with grills, lantern poles and picnic tables are available at each site. Two bathhouses and a dump station serve campers. Stop-by at the camp store to stock up on necessities or a selection of gift items while you are staying with us. The in-season stay limit is two weeks. The out of season stay limit is four weeks. Pets are welcome; however, they must be kept on a leash and may not be tied unattended.

Restaurant

The Governor's Table is a family restaurant capable of seating 225 people and includes private dining areas. It serves an outstanding Southern cuisine along with fresh and healthy food options cooked with produce from our on-site garden. Catered meals and banquets are also available. Call 931-364-2222 for more information.

Golf Course

The golf course is an 18-hole championship par 72 course. It is only closed on winter holidays. The pro shop has an excellent snack bar boasting the best hamburger in the area! The course also has a driving range. Rental clubs are available at the pro-shop by calling 931-364-2319

Bike Trails

Bikes are allowed on paved roads throughout the park.

Swimming

The Olympic-sized pool is open seasonally and is free to inn and cabin guests. There is a wading pool for children and a concession area nearby. Campers pay a reduced fee.

Fishing

A Tennessee fishing license is required to fish on the Duck River. Licenses are sold at local convenience stores and online at www.tn.wildlifelicense.com.

Gift Shop and Camp Store

The inn has a gift shop with toiletries, souvenirs and Tennessee-made crafts. The campground has a camp store that provides camping necessities, snacks and gifts to remember your stay.

Picnic Pavilions and Playgrounds

Horton has four picnic shelters that can be reserved with a fee. The shelters hold from 35-100 people and have grills available. They may be reserved one year in advance. Restrooms are convenient to all of the shelters. Several picnic tables and playgrounds are located along the Duck River and throughout the park.

Hiking Trails

There are four easy hiking trails at Henry Horton. The Hickory Ridge Loop is located near the campground and traverses habitats ranging from sink holes to unusual cedar glades. The Wilhoite Mill Trail winds through an early mill community and along the Duck River and Spring Creek. The Adeline Wilhoite River Trail follows the Duck River to a 20 foot observation tower overlooking a wetland rehabilitation area.
