

Explore. Connect. Achieve.

At the Marshall County Memorial Library we encourage people to do all three of these things at the library. We offer materials, services and programming designed to be of interest to the diverse spectrum of people in our community. We strive to fulfill entertainment, education and lifelong learning goals. We invite all residents of Marshall County as well as visitors to our county to experience everything the library has to offer.

What's Available at the Library?

In addition to our book collection we offer many other materials and services including:

- Public computers
- Wi-Fi
- Free community meeting space
- E-book, streaming audio and video via your library card through the TN R.E.A.D.S program
- DVDs
- CDs
- Programming for children, teens and adults
- Events
- Summer reading program
- Borrowing books from other libraries when we don't have what you need in our collection
- Online databases
- Copying and printing services (nominal fee)
- Fax services (nominal fee)

Programs at the library:

We offer programming for all ages at the library from storytime each week in Lewisburg and Chapel Hill to teen programs to summer reading programs for all ages. To find out what's happening at the library check out our calendar of events on our website, follow us on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram or pick up a calendar at the library.
